

WORKSHOP ON BELIZE

FRIDAY 27TH SEPTEMBER 2002

LONDON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF ADVANCED STUDIES
Institute of Commonwealth Studies, Menzies Room
28 Russell Square, London WC1B 5DS

PROGRAMME

- 9:30-10:00 Registration
- 10:00 Victor Bulmer-Thomas, Honorary Research Fellow
ILAS and Director of Royal Institute of
International Affairs at Chatham House London :
WELCOME
- 10:05 Peter Stafford, Dept. of Botany, Natural
History Museum, London:
Ecology and population status of Morelet's
Crocodiles in the Macal river system.
- 10:45 Claire Muller, Dept. of Geography, Edinburgh
University: The relative importance of mangroves in the life history of marine
organism on the Turneffe Islands atoll.
- 11:30-12:00 COFFEE
- 12:00 Sarah Farney, Trekforce: Current work in Belize
- 12:30 Gregory Pinel, Dept. of Social Policy, London
School of Economics:
Effects of Migration on local communities: A case study of Barranco a
Garifuna village in Belize.
- 1:00-2:00 LUNCH
- 2:00 Elizabeth Graham, Institute of Archaeology,
University College, London: Update on fieldwork
At Lamanai.
- 2:40 Alexis Rosado, The Belize High Commissioner to
the UK: The process and results of the
Belize-Guatemala facilitation process
- 3:20 Zee Edgell, Writer, Dept. of English,
Kent State University, Ohio, USA:
Slavery in Belize, a novelist's
perspective.
- 4:00 Peter Furley, Dept. of Geography, Edinburgh
University: Discussion of Belize Association
matters
- 4:15 Tea

WORKSHOP ON BELIZE

FRIDAY 27TH SEPTEMBER 2002

LONDON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF ADVANCED STUDIES
Institute of Commonwealth Studies, Menzies Room
28 Russell Square, London WC1B 5DS

PROGRAMME

- 9:30-10:00 Registration
- 10:00 Victor Bulmer-Thomas, Honorary Research Fellow
ILAS and Director of Royal Institute of
International Affairs at Chatham House London :
WELCOME
- 10:05 Peter Stafford, Dept. of Botany, Natural
History Museum, London:
Ecology and population status of Morelet's
Crocodiles in the Macal river system.
- 10:45 Claire Muller, Dept. of Geography, Edinburgh
University: The relative importance of
mangroves in the life history of marine
organism on the Turneffe Islands atoll.
- 11:30-12:00 COFFEE
- 12:00 Sarah Farney, Trekforce: Current work in Belize
- 12:30 Gregory Pinel, Dept. of Social Policy, London
School of Economics:
Effects of Migration on local
communities: A case study of Barranco a
Garifuna village in Belize.
- 1:00-2:00 LUNCH
- 2:00 Elizabeth Graham, Institute of Archaeology,
University College, London: Update on fieldwork
At Lamanai.
- 2:40 Alexis Rosado, The Belize High Commissioner to
the UK: The process and results of the
Belize-Guatemala facilitation process
- 3:20 Zee Edgell, Writer, Dept. of English,
Kent State University, Ohio, USA:
Slavery in Belize, a novelist's
perspective.
- 4:00 Peter Furley, Dept. of Geography, Edinburgh
University: Discussion of Belize Association
matters
- 4:15 Tea